Emergency Procedures

To request emergency assistance on campus (fire, police, or ambulance), dial (801) 422-2222 or 911. In all emergencies and accidents the first consideration is your safety and the safety of those around you.

1. Alert all persons nearby.
2. Evacuate the area and close the door to behind the last person. If flammables are spilled and your safety is assured, turn off any ignition devices.
3. Do not hesitate to use emergency eyewash or shower if exposed to a chemical hazard.
4. Contact your faculty supervisor, College Safety Coordinator (801 422-6875) and/or RM&S (801422-4468). If after hours or on weekends contact BYU Police at (801) 422-2222 for advice and assistance or Provo City Police at 911. Be prepared to provide the type of emergency, as well as your location and phone number where you can be reached (not always your office phone).
5. If you have been potentially exposed to a Bloodborne Pathogen, If during open hours proceed directly to the BYU Student Health Center, if after hours go to UVRMC ER. Contact your faculty supervisor, College Safety Coordinator (422-6875) and/or RM&S (422-4468).
