Honored Students

The following are honored students selected by their departments as exemplary student representatives. The speakers and prayers have been selected from among these students.

McKenna Bowman is the daughter of Brad Wakefield of Corvallis, Oregon, and Lark Peterson of Thatcher, Arizona, and is married to Marc Bowman. She is graduating magna cum laude in public health with a health science emphasis. McKenna received full-tuition university scholarships from 2012 to 2015. She enjoys reading, making people laugh, cooking, traveling, biking, watching movies, trying new things, and playing soccer with her husband. McKenna is a medical assistant and works in a dermatologist's office. She plans to continue to gain experience in the medical and public health fields.

Lauren Hubbard is the daughter of Tom and Julie Stockard of Fallon, Nevada, and is married to Tyler Hubbard. She is graduating magna cum laude in nutritional science. Lauren received full-tuition university scholarships from 2012 to 2015 was on the dean's list in the fall 2012, winter 2013, and fall 2013 semesters. She graduated in three years. Lauren was a research assistant in Dr. Merrill Christensen's lab, where she studied cancer prevention through nutritional supplements. She was also a chemistry and physiology teaching assistant. Lauren volunteered with Y-Serve, where she was the program director for the response program. She loves running and has done four half marathons. Lauren also enjoys skydiving, hiking in the Wasatch Mountains, and participating in late-night Tetris competitions with her family. After graduation she will intern at Specialty Health Clinic in Reno, Nevada, and then apply to medical school.

Alexis Parker is the daughter of Dane and Rebecca Parker of Round Rock, Texas, and is engaged to Peter Loderup. She is graduating in microbiology. Alexis received full-tuition university scholarships from 2011 to 2015. She loves to dance and is a member of the BYU Ballroom Dance Company, in which she danced competitively for the past two years. Alexis also loves hiking, camping, and painting watercolors as gifts for friends and family. She is currently working full time as a microbiologist in Springville, Utah. After graduation she is getting married and plans to continue working in Springville while her husband finishes his undergraduate degree at BYU.

Beth Peacock is the daughter of Jerome Black of Richfield, Utah, and Elise Black of Springville, Utah, and is married to Ian Peacock. She is graduating with university honors in landscape management. Beth served in the Wisconsin Milwaukee Mission from 2011 to 2013. She received the Martin Family Scholarship (2015) and the Robert K. Thomas Scholarship (2014–2015). In 2014 Beth coauthored a publication in the Journal of Agricultural and Food Chemistry titled “Pyrenophoric Acids B and C, Two New Phytotoxic Sesquiterpenoids Produced by Pyrenophora semeniperda.” Her honors thesis is “Nitrogen Nutrition Impact on Incidence of Rhizoctonia Infection on Agrostis stolonifera.” Beth is very interested in studying plant pathology. She also loves cooking, baking, gardening, reading, hiking, and sewing. Her favorite thing is to spend time with her family and close friends. After graduation she and Ian are doing a field study in Cuba. Ian has been accepted to the University of California, Los Angeles, in the fall; Beth hopes to find a lab assistant position and apply for a master’s or PhD program with an emphasis in ecology, agricultural science, or plant pathology.

Emily Sears is the daughter of Jeff and Naphaphone Sears of Shelby, Michigan, who are currently living in China. Emily is graduating magna cum laude in neuroscience. She received full-tuition university scholarships from 2012 to 2015 as well as the Myriad Academic Excellence Scholarship in the 2014–2015 school year. She was on the dean’s list every semester from fall 2012 to winter 2015. Emily received a grant from the Office of Research and Creative Activities to research the genetics of vascular dementia and has been working in Dr. John Kauwe’s lab doing research on Alzheimer’s disease. She enjoys playing Ping-Pong and volleyball, tutoring biology classes, and cooking Thai and Vietnamese food. Following graduation Emily will take a gap year and then attend medical school.

Lyndsay Staley is the daughter of Adam Staley of Pinetop, Arizona, and Jenna Consolo of Sunland, California. She is graduating in bioinformatics with a computer science minor. Lyndsay received grants from the Office of Research and Creative Activities in 2013 and 2014. She presented a poster on prostate cancer at the 2014 American Society of Human Genetics Annual Meeting in San Diego. Lyndsay has a publication in PLOS ONE, an open-access journal, and three other manuscripts in process. She was featured in BYU College of Life Sciences magazine in spring 2015. She enjoys cooking, playing sand volleyball and Ping-Pong, reading, solving mind puzzles, painting watercolors, and eating pizza with friends. After graduation she plans to travel to Asia and then apply for a PhD program in human genetics.

Carli Jo Thornton is the daughter of Rodney and Robin Sorenson of Oakley, Utah, and is married to Cody Thornton. She is graduating magna cum laude in exercise and wellness. Carli Jo received full-tuition university scholarships from 2013 to 2015 and was on the dean’s list for three semesters. She also received an Intermountain Electrical Association Academic Scholarship from 2011 to 2014. Carli Jo enjoys taking photos, spending time with family, being outdoors, playing soccer, watching sports, and serving others. After graduation she wants to work in worksite wellness.

Music Performers

Ariana Fannesbeck is the daughter of David and Linda Viera of Danville, California, and is married to Eric Fannesbeck. She is graduating with a bachelor of arts degree in music. Ariana was a member of the BYU Concert Choir from 2010 to 2012 and has been a member of the BYU Singers since 2012. She served as the BYU Singers secretary and alto section leader. Ariana enjoys baking, cooking, competitive swimming, and gardening. She will be an Air Force wife after graduation and plans to run a small baking business out of her home.

Eric Fannesbeck is the son of Robert and Ida Kristine Fannesbeck of Castro Valley, California, and is married to Ariana Viera Fannesbeck. Eric served in the Romania and Moldova Mission from 2010 to 2012. He is graduating with a bachelor of science degree in management with an emphasis in global supply chain. He is the recipient of the G. Roger and Marilyn M. Victor Scholarship and also the William A. and Julia F. Hoops Scholarship (2014–2015). He also received the Airlift/Tanker Association Scholarship and an Air Force ROTC full-tuition scholarship. In September he will begin his career as a commissioned officer in the United States Air Force as an acquisitions manager at Hanscom Air Force Base near Boston.

Sheri Peterson is the daughter of Mike and Donna Lawyer of Springville, Utah, and the widow of Clay Peterson. She has six children and two grandchildren. Sheri is dean of the Utah Valley Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. She has published in The American Organist Magazine and teaches piano and organ lessons. Sheri enjoys family history research, gardening, hiking, and spending time with family. She is pursuing a master’s degree in organ performance at BYU and plans to complete a doctoral degree in musical arts.

Arianne Sam is the daughter of Daniel and Penny Sam of Vernal, Utah. In 2013 she graduated summa cum laude in piano performance and is currently working on a master’s degree in piano performance. Arianne enjoys music, hiking, reading, tennis, and cooking. After completion of her master’s degree, she will continue to teach private piano lessons and be a freelance pianist and accompanist. Arianne would like to pursue a doctorate of music in piano performance.
