Distinguished Service Award Recipient Suzanne Hyland

Suzanne Hyland was raised in Mesa/Gilbert, Arizona. She graduated from Brigham Young University with a bachelor’s degree in economics—the youngest graduate of President Rex Lee’s first graduating class. After graduating, Suzanne worked in financial information systems and then transitioned to clinical research. In 2001 she founded and continues to run a business in wholesale quilting supplies and teaches quilting techniques worldwide. Suzanne has moved with her spouse, Mark, and their three children around the country to five states: Arizona, California, Kentucky, Colorado, and Utah. She completed an executive MBA at the University of Utah.

Passionate about mentoring and helping women find joy and success in their personal, family, and professional pursuits, Suzanne and Mark established the Suzanne M. Hyland Women in Biological and BioMedical Sciences Endowed Scholarship-Mentorship Fund. In 2017 the Hylands joined the Life Sciences Advisory Council, and Suzanne chaired the Women’s Committee. In this role, she was instrumental in establishing the annual She Is a Scientist event and the current peer-consulting program that is now administered through the Life Sciences Advisement Center.

Suzanne loves learning, traveling, skiing, theater, and concerts. In addition, she enjoys art and history museums, sewing, and gardening.

Honored Students

*The following students were chosen by their departments as exemplary student representatives.
The speakers and prayers have been selected from among these students.*

Bailey James Calder, from Springville, Utah, is graduating magna cum laude in physiology and developmental biology. He is the son of Ralph and Kris Calder. Bailey served a service mission in Utah County. He received the Presidential and Alumni Scholarships at Utah State University prior to coming to BYU and received full-tuition scholarships while at BYU. Bailey's research interest is in the process of human development. He has been involved in mentored research, and he has received a joint CURA award and has presented at the CURA conference. Bailey enjoys hiking, fishing, four-wheeling, playing volleyball, and spending time with family. After graduation, he will start the PhD program in cell biology and physiology at BYU.

Seth Isaac Evans, from Newbury Park, California, is graduating summa cum laude in microbiology. He is the son of Ron and Janet Evans. Seth served in the Honduras Tegucigalpa Mission. While at BYU, he received the Microbiology and Molecular Biology Department mentorship award and several experiential learning grants, which furthered his research and allowed him to author three publications and present data at regional conferences. He also worked as a teaching assistant in the Chemistry Department, for which he received the Garth L. Lee Undergraduate Teaching Award. Seth was an Edwin S. Hinckley Scholar. In addition, he earned a Spanish Language Certificate and participated in a variety of activities serving Spanish-speaking communities, such as volunteering as a lead medical interpreter at the Maliheh Free Clinic in Millcreek, Utah. Seth enjoys watching movies, baking artisan bread, fishing on the Provo River, and snowboarding in the Cottonwood Canyons. After graduation, he will attend the University of South Carolina School of Medicine.

Anna Caroline Everett, from Newbury Park, California, is graduating magna cum laude in neuroscience with a minor in mathematics. She is the daughter of Craig and Sandee Everett and the fiancée of Braden Webb. Anna served in the Tahiti Papeete Mission. She has presented her research at the institutional, regional, and national levels, including at the annual Society for Neuroscience meeting. Anna has received a first-place oral presentation award, two institutional research grants, and the national Goldwater Scholarship. While at BYU, she worked as a teaching assistant for general and organic chemistry and received the Garth L. Lee Undergraduate Teaching Award. She also served as the social media chair for BYU's Women in Science Association. Anna enjoys playing word games, watching reality television, and spending time with her friends and fiancé. After graduation, she will apply to PhD programs in neuroscience while working as a laboratory technician, researching epilepsy at the University of Utah Anticonvulsant Drug Development Program.

Amy Elizabeth Mitchell Hayward, from Kent, Washington, is graduating summa cum laude in exercise science with minors in psychology and gerontology. She is the daughter of Jason and Laura Mitchell and the wife of Cody Hayward. Amy served in the Japan Sapporo Mission. She received the Brigham Young Scholarship all four years at BYU and was on the dean's list. She is also a member of the Phi Kappa Phi, Golden Key, and Phi Eta Sigma honor societies. Amy was a teaching assistant and tutor in the Chemistry Department, and she has enjoyed volunteering and working at various physical therapy clinics, working as a research assistant in the biomechanics lab, and working as a medical assistant at Lakeview Family Medicine in Orem. Amy loves running, hiking, playing the flute, having game nights, and cooking. After graduation, she will attend the University of Utah physical therapy program.

Abby Sue Flake Kjar, from Pinetop, Arizona, is graduating magna cum laude in landscape management with a minor in business. She is the daughter of Scott and Suzanne Flake and the wife of Joshua Kjar. Abby served in the North Carolina Charlotte Mission. While at BYU, she received a Heritage Scholarship, the Parley Glover Memorial Scholarship, the Scott Allen Memorial Scholarship, the Lawn Butler Scholarship, and the Collinsworth Family Scholarship. She was also president of the BYU Landscape Management Club. Abby received a CURA grant for her research of native wildflower seed germination methods and is currently pursuing her Master Gardener Certification. Representing BYU at the National Collegiate Landscape Competition, she placed third in exterior landscape design last year and first in interior landscape design this year. Her interests include boating on Lake Powell, reading youth fiction in a hammock, hiking the red rocks, painting the sunset, snuggling her husband, and enjoying Oreo milkshakes. After graduation, Abby will work as a landscape designer with Big Rock Landscaping.

Connor Chad Littlefield, from Stansbury Park, Utah, graduated cum laude in nutritional science. He is the son of Chad and Lisa Littlefield and the husband of Megan Larsen Littlefield. He and Megan have a three-year-old son, Callum, and are expecting their second son in June. Connor served in the Korea Seoul Mission. While at BYU, he received department and college scholarships and enjoyed studying the molecular aspects of human nutrition. He presented his diabetes research at local, regional, and international conferences, received two CURA grants, and was awarded first place for the Nutrition, Dietetics, and Food Science Department in the BYU CURA poster competition. He was also awarded second place in the Young Investigator Three-Minute Thesis Competition at the international American Diabetes Association research conference. Connor loves ice cream, making cheese, and fly fishing the Provo River. He will begin the molecular biology PhD program at the University of Utah in the fall.

Evan Michael Marshman, from Augusta, Georgia, is graduating magna cum laude in bioinformatics with a minor in family life. He is the son of Mike and Lauren Marshman and the husband of Christen Petersen Marshman. Evan served in the Micronesia Guam Mission. While at BYU, he was on the dean's list and was involved in mentored research, in which he excelled in computational biology skills. He received three CURA awards, and the research from one of the projects he worked on was published in Scientific Reports. Evan loves watching BYU sports and playing sports himself, and he and his wife enjoy hiking and whitewater rafting. They have a goal to visit every national park in the United States and to raft the Grand Canyon. Evan loves to laugh and likes jokes, pranks, and lighthearted fun. After graduation, he will work for the biotech company Biolexis and will eventually pursue a PhD in computational biology and precision medicine to become a research and teaching professor at an R1 research university.

Eliza Faith Olpin, from Folsom, California, is graduating in public health with an emphasis in health promotion and a minor in family life. She is the daughter of Benjamin and Ruth Harding and the wife of James Olpin. Eliza served in the Australia Melbourne Mission speaking Mandarin. While at BYU, she was on the dean's list and worked as a teaching assistant. She received a CURA award and hopes to have her research on parent social media use and family health published in a peer-reviewed journal. Eliza spent a semester in Texas completing an internship for Mental Health America of Greater Dallas. Her hobbies include playing disc golf with her husband, attending book clubs, and going running with friends. She is passionate about the social determinants of health and hopes to make family health a focus of her future career. After graduation, Eliza will take the Certified Health Education Specialist exam and plans to work at a local public health department or nonprofit organization as a health educator. She is considering master's programs in public administration, public health, or education and looks forward to using her knowledge of health and child development in her future role as a mother.

Music Performers

Isabella Corrêa von Wallwitz, from São Paulo, Brazil, is graduating in microbiology. She is the daughter of Edilene Corrêa von Wallwitz and Reiner Jurgen von Wallwitz. Isabella served in the Utah Salt Lake City Temple Square Mission. She studied pharmaceutical sciences and biochemistry at the University of São Paulo before transferring to BYU. While at BYU, she received the Microbiology and Molecular Biology Department mentorship award and presented her research poster at the American Society for Microbiology Intermountain Branch Meeting. Isabella has been involved in various leadership positions to advocate for equity and inclusion. She has also served as a Portuguese and German language facilitator in the BYU Foreign Language Student Residence and was the membership coordinator for the Association of Future Female Physicians club and the co-chair of the Women in STEM Council. Isabella enjoys singing, dancing, traveling, and engaging in outdoor activities. After graduation, she plans to attend medical school to become a surgeon.

Jason Daniel Garcia, from Fayetteville, North Carolina, is majoring in applied and computational mathematics with a minor in computer science. He is the son of Daniel and Jenny Garcia. Jason served in the Peru Piura Mission. He graduated from the International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme and received a BYU Multicultural Student Scholarship as well as a full academic scholarship. Jason works at the e-learning platform Juni Learning as a senior instructor, where his responsibilities include teaching, shadowing and training new instructors, and developing new curriculum. He is passionate about languages and lives in the Russian house at the Foreign Language Student Residence. Jason's hobbies include playing piano and classical guitar, singing, and playing soccer, Ultimate Frisbee, and other sports.

Gianna Michal Patchett, from Las Vegas, Nevada, is the daughter of Brian and Stacey Patchett. She served in the Brazil Manaus Mission. Gianna is an alumna of Utah State University, where she graduated summa cum laude in cello performance with minors in English literature and Portuguese. She is currently attending the BYU J. Reuben Clark Law School. She loves making music, reading Agatha Christie novels, writing mysteries, and hiking near her family’s new home in Pennsylvania.

Sheri L. Peterson, from Springville, Utah, earned a master’s degree in organ performance from BYU. She is the daughter of Mike and Donna Lawyer and the widow of Clay Peterson. Sheri is a member of the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America and a member of the Music Teachers National Association. She was dean of the Utah Valley Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and has been published in The American Organist magazine. Sheri teaches piano and organ lessons and enjoys family history research, gardening, hiking, and spending time with her family. She plans to complete a doctoral degree in musical arts.

Scholastic Recognition

Students who have received or will receive scholastic honors (summa cum laude, magna cum laude, and cum laude) will have this designation on their diplomas and transcripts after final grades are posted to their transcripts.

University Honors

Students graduating with university honors have completed several interdisciplinary general education courses, performed educational service or studied in a foreign setting, written an interdisciplinary essay and a thesis, and defended their thesis in their major discipline.
