Distinguished Service Award Recipient

Dr. Robert Clark

Dr. Robert Clark has dedicated his career to improving the lives of individuals and families through both medical practice and global health service opportunities. He practiced family medicine and obstetrics for 40 years in Payson, Utah, retiring four years ago.

Dr. Clark's volunteer work in low-income countries began in China more than 30 years ago, and he has been a service missionary for over two decades in the Church's Humanitarian Department. In this role, Dr. Clark has helped develop, implement, teach, and sustain educational programs using a train-the-trainer model, including neonatal resuscitation and obstetric emergencies. Along with many other dedicated volunteers, the Humanitarian Department has empowered local medical providers worldwide.

Dr. Clark has supported the College of Life Sciences since receiving his MPH degree at BYU in 2006. He has shared his expertise by teaching and mentoring future public health professionals through a capstone course. The Clark family has also supported student success by providing financial assistance to students.

As senior missionaries, Dr. Clark and his wife, Anne, have served two full-time missions in Hong Kong, China, returning to where Dr. Clark had served as a young man. They have been blessed with eight children, all of whom graduated from BYU. The oldest of their 28 grandchildren is continuing that tradition.

Dr. Clark's service to our college has been extraordinary. His teaching, mentorship, and philanthropic contributions have shaped the lives of many students, leaving a legacy of knowledge, compassion, and opportunity.

It is with great appreciation that we recognize Dr. Clark for his dedication and outstanding service.

Honored Students

The following students were chosen by their departments as exemplary student representatives. Those speaking and offering prayers have been selected from among these students.

Maia Kathlyn Bingham Boggess, from San Clemente, California, is graduating summa cum laude in biology. She is the daughter of Amy and Jeffrey Cook and Lucas and Catherine Bingham and the wife of Jeffrey Boggess. Maia served in the Argentina Bahía Blanca Mission and the Utah Salt Lake City Mission. She received the Russell M. Nelson Presidential Scholarship and an undergraduate experiential learning award. She is a William Hebard Scholar and was on the dean's list. Maia enjoys skiing, backpacking, hiking, rock climbing, training for marathons, teaching Sunbeams, and volunteering as a director for the American Youth Soccer Organization VIP program. During her last year of college, she worked full-time at the Apple Wellness Center in Cupertino, California, and has recently moved to Colorado, where she is applying to physician assistant schools in the Denver area.

Madeline Kay Martin Frazer, from Sandy, Utah, graduated cum laude and with university honors in wildlife and wildlands conservation and a minor in French. She is the daughter of Jim and Rebecca Martin and the wife of Bronze Frazer. Madeline served in the France Paris Mission. She received the Russell M. Nelson Presidential Scholarship, the Marcus Daly Scholarship, and the William and Karen Brotherson undergraduate scholarship. She was awarded two CURA grants and presented her research at the BYU Life Sciences Undergraduate Research Conference, the Utah Chapter of the Wildlife Society, and the American Society of Mammalogists/International Mammalogical Congress. While at BYU, she was a teaching assistant for honors courses, served as secretary and president of the Wildlife and Range Club, supported the BYU Student Sustainability Initiative, and participated in intramural sports. She enjoys hiking in the mountains, camping with her family, playing board games with friends, and cooking dinner with her husband. After graduation, Madeline will pursue master's and doctoral degrees and aspires to be a professor and perform research in community and conservation ecology.

Isaac McConkie Packer, from Midlothian, Virginia, is graduating summa cum laude in cell biology and physiology. He is the son of Gardiner McKay Packer and Alison McConkie Packer and the husband of Alexis Bass. He and Lexi are expecting a baby girl in August. Isaac served in the Australia Brisbane Mission and the Utah Ogden Mission. He received the Lelia H. Ashley Scholarship and the John H. and Millie S. Webb Scholarship. He is a member of the Phi Eta Sigma honor society and was on the dean's list. He coauthored a paper that was published in Current Oncology and presented a research poster at the Utah Conference on Undergraduate Research. While at BYU, he was a teaching assistant in the anatomy labs, served as vice president for the Counseling and Psychological Services Student Outreach Council, and volunteered as a softball and bowling coach for the BYU Special Olympics. Isaac enjoys camping, golfing, and playing board and card games. After graduation he will attend dental school at Virginia Commonwealth University, specializing in endodontics.

Parker John Risk, from Lacey, Washington, is graduating cum laude in the integrated bachelor's/master's program in public health with an emphasis in health science. He is the son of Lynnette and Todd Risk and the husband of Tyra Walker Risk. He and Tyra have a son, Heath, who will be two years old in June. Parker served in the Philippines Cavite Mission. He is a member of the Phi Eta Sigma honor society and received a healthcare leadership certificate as well as scholarships in healthcare leadership and public health research. He conducted research in Ecuador as part of a collaboration between BYU and Universidad de las Américas. He also conducted research for Primary Children's Wasatch Canyons Behavioral Health campus and the cities of Provo and Santaquin. Parker enjoys long-distance running, golf, board games, and writing. His first novel, Ashen, was published last year. After graduation he plans to go to Disneyland and run in the Utah Valley Marathon. He will also be commissioning into the US Air Force as a public health officer, working in disease control and occupational health for the air force community.

Isabella Aguiar Roque, from Curitiba, Brazil, graduated summa cum laude and with university honors in neuroscience. She is the daughter of José Augusto Roque and Katia Regina Aguiar Roque and the wife of Jonathan William Crow. Isabella served in the Florida Fort Lauderdale Mission, speaking Spanish and Portuguese, and in the Brazil Vitória Espírito Santo Mission. She received a full-tuition scholarship. Isabella presented her research at the University of Utah Neuroscience Snowbird Symposium, the Utah Conference on Undergraduate Research, the Society for Neuroscience annual meeting, and the BYU Life Sciences Undergraduate Poster Competition. For her honors leadership experience, she organized a series of online trainings connecting parents, teachers, and healthcare providers working with children with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) in Brazil to ASD specialists in the United States. She also gathered donations for Casai Yanomami, a hospital in Roraima, Brazil, dedicated to caring for members of the indigenous Yanomami tribe of the Amazon region. Isabella's interests include reading philosophy and Latin American literature, shadowing surgical procedures, and volunteering as a Spanish and Portuguese interpreter at the United Way Volunteer Care Clinic in Provo. After graduation she plans to complete a master's degree in neuroscience at BYU and then pursue an MD-PhD degree, specializing in neurosurgery. Her goal is to help improve healthcare for Latin American communities in the United States and healthcare access in rural communities in Brazil.

Brennan Michael Rotar, from Sudbury, Massachusetts, is graduating summa cum laude in dietetics with a minor in psychology. He is the son of Michael and Elisha Rotar and the husband of Cora Stone Rotar. Brennan served in the Utah Provo Mission. He received the Russell M. Nelson Presidential Scholarship. He is a member of the Phi Eta Sigma and Phi Kappa Phi honor societies and was on the dean's list. While at BYU, he was a teaching assistant in the dietetics didactic program and served as the communications manager on the Life Sciences Belonging Council. Brennan is passionate about eating disorder treatment and served as a board member of Aaron's Gift, a nonprofit organization that provides financial aid to individuals seeking specialized care for eating disorders. He also worked as a dietary aide at Walden Behavioral Care, the largest inpatient eating disorder treatment facility in the nation. Brennan loves to be active, including weightlifting and playing basketball. He also enjoys being outdoors, including in his ward calling as Young Men specialist. After graduation he will pursue the combined dietetic internship and master's degree program in nutritional science and dietetics at BYU, after which he will become a registered dietician. He hopes to work in eating disorder treatment and/or pursue a PhD to continue in academia as a professor.

Ty Jason Skyles, from Gilbert, Arizona, is graduating summa cum laude in microbiology with a minor in Scandinavian studies. He is the son of Kimo and Dana Skyles and the husband of Halli Labanok Skyles. Ty served a mission in Finland. He received a BYU full-tuition scholarship, was on the dean's list, and was awarded two CURA grants. He won a third-place CURA award, coauthored several papers, including one that was published in the Journal of Community Health, and presented his research at several conferences, including the American Medical Informatics Association annual symposium. While at BYU, Ty was a teaching assistant and research assistant as well as a volunteer and president for the BYU chapter of Best Buddies, a program that matches college students with adults from the community who have intellectual and developmental disabilities. Ty was a summer intern at Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis. He also worked as a patient care tech at Courtyard at Jamestown Assisted and Senior Living in Provo, Utah. Outdoor rock climbing is his main hobby. He also likes to sauna with the BYU Finnish Club, hang out with his wife, or read in his free time. After graduation he will attend the Mayo Clinic Alix School of Medicine in Arizona.

Todd J (TJ) Stefl, from Farmington, Utah, is graduating summa cum laude in exercise science. He is the son of Tiffany and David Stefl. TJ served in the Canada Edmonton Mission and the Arizona Mesa Mission. He received two university scholarships as well as the Edwin S. Hinckley Scholarship, the C. H. Nye Scholarship, and the Patricia Frist Memorial Scholarship. While at BYU, he was on the dean's list and served on the Exercise Science Student Council. He spent two summers conducting research on military personnel performance and injury prevention at the University of Pittsburgh Neuromuscular Research Laboratory/Warrior Human Performance Research Center. He coauthored an abstract that was presented at the Mid-Atlantic Regional Chapter of the American College of Sports Medicine annual meeting. TJ loves being outdoors and being physically active. His current favorite activities are ice hockey, mountain biking, and weightlifting. He also likes to eat food and spend time with people he loves. After graduation he plans to either pursue a master's degree, attend medical school, or become a firefighter.

Music Performers

Elyse Nelson Jorgensen, from Holladay, Utah, is graduating in music, and her husband, Josh, is graduating in food science. Elyse has played the harp for 16 years. She has performed with many symphony and ensemble groups, is a certified harp instructor, and will open a private studio after graduation. She loves the harp and is deeply honored to be playing today because it connects people with each other and with the spiritual. Her most cherished moments have been at the Huntsman Cancer Center playing for patients as they receive treatment.

Sheri L. Peterson, from Springville, Utah, earned a master's degree in organ performance from BYU. She is a member of the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America and a member of the Music Teachers National Association. She was dean of the Utah Valley Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and has been published in the American Organist magazine.

Scholastic Recognition

Students who have received or will receive scholastic honors (summa cum laude, magna cum laude, and cum laude) will have this designation indicated on their transcripts after final grades are posted.

University Honors

Students graduating with University Honors have completed several interdisciplinary general education courses, leadership development experiences, an interdisciplinary essay, and a thesis in their major discipline.
